

Apache County

1. Who is the District One County Supervisor?
2. How many Board of Supervisors are elected for Apache County?
3. What is the total population of residence living in Apache County?
4. Where is District One's main office located?
5. How many Navajo Nation Chapters are within District One?
6. What days does the Board of Supervisors conduct their monthly meetings?
7. What town are Board of Supervisors meetings held?

Answers:
1. Jim Claw 2. Three 3. 70,000 4. Chinle, AZ 5. Fourteen
6. The 1st and 3rd Tuesday of the month 7. St. Johns, AZ

Meet Stanley Robbins, Development Director

Stanley Robbins AKA "Stan" has been employed with District One for 7 years as Director of Economic Development. Stan is the CEO of Robbins Enterprise Inc, and the Chairman of Navajo Broadcast Enterprise.

He was born and raised in Western Navajo near the South Rim of the Grand Canyon, in a region known as Grey Mountain, Arizona. He is married into the Coyote Pass Jemez Clan from Blue Gap and has been residing in the Chinle area for 23 years.

Stan quotes "I am self motivated, an apprentice, self educated by hands on experience with many teachers and mentors. I like to read self help books, like to travel, meet people with different cultures and like to have fun with my grandkids."

Stan says, "I have a successful business and still have time to direct the economic development Department of Apache County. I am an experienced leader which includes being a former Navajo Nation Council Delegate, member of the Navajo Nation Economic Development Committee and part of the Navajo Housing Authority Board of Commissioners. I am also a business consultant on home base businesses on a variety of wholesale and retail business as well as professional development. I have experience in educating the public on governmental processes and work directly with communities and organizations. I am knowledgeable in tribal property laws, tribal governmental processes, and federal, State and Tribal law requirements in acquiring surface and subsurface leases."